Part IV Miscellaneous Activities

Bouquet & Garter Toss?      Yes      No

FYI: About one in ten couples will elect to have a bouquet and garter toss. If you choose to, it is HIGHLY recommended that it is reserved for guests over 18 years old.

If you elect to include the bouquet and garter toss in your wedding reception plans, you may also choose the music.

While the bride throws the bouquet (Song & Artist) _____

While the groom takes off the garter (Song & Artist) _____

While the groom throws the garter (Song & Artist) _____

While the "catchers" put the garter on (Song & Artist) _____

NOTE: Your DJ can help you with each of these selections and you can visit www.mikestaff.com for ideas.

Bouquet Toss Only Option:

Here is an alternative to the traditional Bouquet and Garter. Simply call out all of the ladies married or not out to the dance floor. The bride then tosses the bouquet and whoever catches it gets to keep it, that simple. This way there is no calling out single people, stopping the dancing and it takes 2 minutes tops. This works well for the bride that is excited about tossing her bouquet but would rather skip the other traditional steps.

Anniversary Dance:    Yes      No

FYI: The Anniversary Dance works well if you have a lot of guests who have been married for a long time. It works like this: Your DJ will invite all married couples to the dance floor to share a dance with the newlyweds. Once the dance floor is full, your DJ will then politely ask couples (with the exception of the bride & groom) who've been married less than 1 year.....then 5 years .....then 10 years, 20 years, etc. to please leave the dance floor. You will be left dancing with the couple that has been married the longest (usually grandparents). Your DJ will get a round of applause for them and then ask them if they have any advice for you (since they've got more experience than anyone else in the room).

Part V Music

The music played at your reception will help set the mood for the entire night. Your Mike Staff Productions DJ is extremely knowledgeable and well rounded when it comes to music. Additionally, he has many years of experience in getting people on the dance floor and in making sure that all of your guests are happy and enjoying the music.

While you are free to choose as much music as you'd like for your wedding reception, it is HIGHLY RECOMMENDED that you trust your DJ. At Mike Staff Productions, you've hired a professional, experienced wedding DJ that is an expert at keeping the party going. Therefore, we strongly suggest you allow your DJ to mix some of your suggestions, with your guest's requests and other selections to create a fun-filled night that is uniquely yours and that all of your guests will enjoy.

Style of music to be played during cocktail hour _____

FYI: Most couples opt for a mix of Jazz, Crooners, Singer Songwriters (Frank Sinatra, Micheal Buble, Dave Matthers etc), Blues, etc.

Style of music to be played during dinner _____

FYI: Smooth Jazz without vocals works best, because it allows guests to have dinner conversation without having to strain to hear one another.

Are there any songs that you DO NOT want played? (song title & artist)

FYI: When choosing songs you DO NOT want played, try not to choose songs that are hugely popular. Certain "wedding songs" are popular because people love to dance to them.
